

“Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. continues to add National Recognition”

Fort Worth, TX (May 26, 2016)- Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc. CLINIC presented a recognition to Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. counselors for their years of hard work in support of the immigrant community.

Rocio Interiano and Andy Beltran received the recognition for their 7 and 5 years of service respectively in Atlanta, Georgia during the CLINIC's National Convention. Both are counselors accredited by the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA), accreditation that requires constant training in immigration laws and service dedication.

Rocio Interiano, who started her work inspired by her uncle and founder of Proyecto Inmigrante, Douglas Interiano, said "I am honored with the recognition granted by CLINIC and I commit to continue offering our clients the best advice possible."

Andy Beltran, who, like other Proyecto Inmigrante counselors and staff, began as a volunteer at the agency said: "I appreciate the recognition of a national organization like CLINIC, instrumental in our goal to inform, serve, and guide our community especially during these hard times."

The founder and CEO of Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc., Douglas Interiano, said "recognition of the work done by Andy and Rocio is a sign of the dedication of all the staff of our agency."

Lawyers and accredited personnel from all around the country attend the annual convention to participate in training and refresher courses on immigration issues. During the event, CLINIC honors the service and dedication of non-profit staff in its affiliate network.

Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. was founded in 2005 with a commitment to inform, serve, and assist in reuniting immigrant families in North Texas.

For more information please contact Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc at 888-793-2182 ext. 201

###