Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. is now part of NCLR

Fort Worth, TX (March 10, 2016). - Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. is heading to a new direction, today we are pleased to announce the affiliation to NCLR (National Council of La Raza).

“As founder and CEO of Proyecto Inmigrante I cannot be more excited”, said Douglas Interiano. “The affiliation to a national organization with a proving record of helping the Latino community like NCLR, is giving Proyecto Inmigrante a stronger voice to serve, inform and assist the immigrants’ families” he adds.

This is a milestone for Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. that is celebrating the tenth anniversary.

“We are thrilled to welcome Proyecto Inmigrante ICS to the NCLR Affiliate Network and look forward to working with them on critical issues that are important to our immigrant community”, said Sonia Troche NCLR Texas Regional Director

Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. is one of eight community based organizations nationwide recently joined the NCLR Affiliate Network ,which currently has 267 member organizations that create opportunities for the Latino community throughout the country.

NCLR’s Affiliates provide programs and services to millions of Hispanic Americans and use their expertise to give voice to issues facing Latinos. Through their work, these nonprofits provide educational tools for children and adults, prepare workers to enter the labor force, facilitate the integration of immigrants into schools and the workforce, register people to vote, provide health services, help families purchase and stay in their homes, and promote policies that support the well-being of Latino families.

Proyecto Inmigrante ICS, Inc. is a non-profit agency recognized by the U.S. Dept. of Justice, Executive Office for Immigration Review, Board of Immigration Appeals, dedicated to serve, inform and assist indigent families with their legal immigration needs. Since its creation, Proyecto Inmigrante has served thousands of families throughout the Dallas-FT. Worth and Wichita Falls region.
